JENNINGS PAYS GRIFF'S TEAM HIGH TRIBUTE

Manager Detroit Tigers Says Nationals Have Chance to Land 1913 Flag.

JIMMY WALSH HERE

Former Bantam-weight Boxer in Capital Declares Ritchie Is a Real Champion.

By WILLIAM PEET.

"The Nationals would have won the pennant last year had Griff been able to show one more consistent pitcher to help out Bob Green and Walter Johnson. At that it was a great ball club, and I believe will be in the running for the championship next season."

Thus spoke Hughie Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers, who is tearing off an act at Chicago's expense.

Jennings incidentally made the big hit of the evening at the fifteenth street playground, and was forced to respond to the urgent request for a speech.

Discussing baseball in general, and the Detroit Tigers in particular, Hughie said:

"I am not making any predictions as to where my ball club will finish in 1913, but feel confident that we will spring a few surprises. Griff made history last year, and I have enough star ball players on my team right now for the nucleus of a pennant contender."

Jennings paid a high tribute to little Eddie Foster, the Washington third-sacker, whom he considers the best shortstop in the league. The Tiger leader says he liked the Nationals for the reason that they were always taking chances, and trying to pull off something.

"If all the ball-players actors the writer has seen, Jennings is easily the best."

Jimmy Walsh in Town.

Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, formerly recognized as the bantam-weight boxing champion, was in the Capital for a few hours last night en route for the South, where he will spend a few weeks.

Walsh is one of the most popular little fellows who ever pulled on a glove, and has been boxing in fast company since 1901.

Speaking of the light-weight situation, Walsh says: "This fellow Ritchie, who has just beaten Ad Wolcott, is the real goods. I believe he can beat Volcott any time the pair meet in a long-distance bout. He's a sure enough champion."

Walsh has boxed two draws with John J. Kilbane, and one with Al Attell, and has beaten such good men as John J. Cooney, Pat Moore, and others.

Carolina's Football Coach.

Word was received last night that T. C. McLaughlin, the former Princeton end, had been named to coach the University of North Carolina football eleven for next fall. Jack Hendrix, the Georgetown 1912 leader, was mentioned for the post.
